

Obsession

Honor Society

I was the one forced to defend my innocence
But her eyes got me stuck
Lyin' in the dark broken in two like a china doll
But I love you too much to watch you run

Obsession, obsession
I'd die by your side [x2]

A moment alone, a crack in the stone
I'm breaking down
But her smile weighs too much
I'm out of control
You're all that I think about
But I love you too much to let you run

Obsession, obsession
I'd die by your side [x2]

Obsession, obsession
I'd die by your side [x2]
