

Force Feed Me

Hoobastank

You think you've found the way
And that's okay, for you and you alone
For you and you alone

But why can't you understand
Your master plan won't work for you everyone
Work for everyone

No one can say
What's best for me to think
But still you try to
Force feed me
Force feed me

And no one can make me
Choose a path to take
But still you try to
Force feed me
Force feed me

I feel so many things
But that's alright
If you don't feel them too
If you don't feel them too

'Cause I seem to understand
What's right for me
May not be right for you
Not be right for you

No one can say
What's best for me to think
But still you try to
Force feed me
Force feed me

And no one can make me
Choose a path to take
But still you try to
Force feed me
Force feed me, yeah
Feed Me

Go rescue someone
Just somebody else
'Cause I don't remember
Asking for help

You think you've found the way
And that's okay, for you and you alone
For you and you alone

No one can say
What's best for me to think
But still you try to
Force feed me
Force feed me

And no one can make me
Choose a path to take
But still you try to
Force feed me
Force feed me

No one can say
Force feed me

No one can say
Force feed me
