

There Will Never Be Another One

Hoobastank

(No, no, no, no-o-o
No, no, no, no-o-o)

What was it about that day?
That left me with a lasting taste I cannot duplicate
Ever since we let the sun go down

And with every minute that's gone by
Like a fool I've been wondering
Why can't I just press rewind?
Leave behind the here and now

You ruined me oh so perfectly
Now no one will do , no one but you
The only i know is true is
No, there will never be another one (another one)
Another one like you
The sun will rise, the sun will set
The days go by, still can't forget
There will never be another one, another one like you
(No, no, no, no-o-o, like you)

Now nothing ever satisfies
You went and set the bar so high it's all a waste of time
I wonder why I even tried
No other face can quite replace
Your memory's still haunting me
Just let me be

No, there will never be another one (another one)
Another one like you
The sun will rise, the sun will set
The days go by still can't forget
There will never be another one
Another one like you

No, no, no
It's clear to me that I am never gonna find
(No) no, (no) no, (no) no
So now it feels like I am gonna lose my mind
Oh no
(There will never be another one, another one like you)
The sun will rise, the sun will set
The days go by, still can't forget

There will never be another one, another one
There will never be another one, another one
There will never be another one, another one
There will never be another one, another one
There will never be another one, another one
(Like you, like you)
