

Dead Sea

Hoodoo Gurus

I saw God in the desert
In some burning bushes
I heard God on the mountain
In a cave of whispers
Moving over the water
Gathering the fishes
Watching sheep in the meadow
While the shepherds slumbered

I know that it really means nothing
I know that it never can happen

People reading the Bible
Like it's holy scripture
Taking words out of context
Now devoid of meaning
Using heaven for hatred - almost universal

Ignorance is the Devil
Knowledge was the first sin

I know that it really means nothing
I know that it never can happen

Why won't anyone listen
When the Prophet's talking?
No more miracle-makers
Not since television
Damned to live in the present
This eternal moment
Blessed gift of existence
Clinging to a mystery

I know that it really means nothing
I know that it never can happen
I know
