

Who Do I Trust

HoodRich Pablo Juan

In this whole world, who can I trust?
'Cause it's a cold world, who can I trust?
The same girl I'ma love, the next man gon' lust
I put my nuts in the streets when my fam gave up
In this whole world, who can I trust?
'Cause it's a cold world, who can I trust?
Leave these niggas in the dust 'cause they all switch up
Soon as you come up, they holler, 'what about us?'

And I don't owe these niggas nothing
I'm self made, came from nothing
I got to give all thanks to almighty God
And all my partners who bosses, don't need no entourage
These niggas be broads, they all frogs
Can't put my trust in no human being, too many flawed
They look thirsty, nigga right there wanna take it all
And I don't believe in no politics, so I'm breaking laws
My own eyes can't believe in all the shit I saw
My partner took from my other partner, they playing raw
Your ego big, but we don't believe them dreams you trying to sell us
It's hard to love when you hate yourself, these niggas jealous

In this whole world, who can I trust?
'Cause it's a cold world, who can I trust?
The same girl I'ma love, the next man gon' lust
I put my nuts in the streets when my fam gave up
In this whole world, who can I trust?
'Cause it's a cold world, who can I trust?
Leave these niggas in the dust 'cause they all switch up
Soon as you come up, they holler, 'what about us?'

I'm cold-hearted, I'm brokenhearted
Can't trust my own fam, but I still love them regardless
These girls gold diggers, you get money, you a target
All of them the same, they never finish how they started
I'm from the bricks, I built the hardest
'Cause I'm the smartest, I threw my trust in the garbage
The past gone, I just keep going
And I be catching all these sneak disses these niggas throwing
It ain't my fault that I'm all broken, my momma crying
Your girl reaching, but she still got me on her mind
They mad at a nigga, I ain't even signed
I left them in the dust, nigga, I can't look behind

In this whole world, who can I trust?
'Cause it's a cold world, who can I trust?
The same girl I'ma love, the next man gon' lust
I put my nuts in the streets when my fam gave up
In this whole world, who can I trust?
'Cause it's a cold world, who can I trust?
Leave these niggas in the dust 'cause they all switch up
Soon as you come up, they holler, 'what about us?'
