

Everything's Lost

Hoods

Life's hard tomorrow's harder eyes open wide I drown in sorrow At a loss of words adversity strikes no one wins in the game of life
I choke blind hold it all in material greed leads sinners to si n
World's havok will never stop people's compassion forgot not lo st
I'm lost hardened block out the pain as life slips nothing to g ain
Won't give in I know I've lost when I die my hate stops street wise
I always look back past lessons ready to attack anger suppresse d Towards the guilty who've sinned I keep my head up I know I'll never win
You gotta learn life's a game no one wins Everything's lost in the world's greed so much pain
No ones sees everything's lost in the world's greed God give eyes to witness not to turn our backs
So open your eyes and see Everything's lost no one wins
