Yeah

All this internet got people thinking they invincible
Did they forget before the music I was a criminal
Little things turn big cause it's all about the principle
We get the job done then we keep the chat minimal
And I hate on the success cause I was just like them
Stuck in a mud but I made my way out the trench
I was hopping in patties and I was hopping in a Benz
I cut a couple people off because I won't hop on the fence
I know pride is a hard thing to swallow wait rather swallow
That before you swallow all these hollows
Any fake accounts watching yet they may as well follow
All these diamonds on me you would've thought I won the lotto
Size don't matter when you're staring down the barrel
My guy's the outside knight that I seen carols
Yo we in the gym but these fingers win battles
We leave holes in shirts new yeezy apparel
Take the rap like the trap and bag up the merch
Made 30 cal shirts that's in a week's work
I know my mother's prayer saved me from under the dirt
We pop up when it's time after doing homework
This lifestyle I'm living is like a roller coaster
With me nowhere chilling then we're banging so so
I come up flinging MD and coke
I'm still making flips like a bitch with nova
I got penny cases in this shit really stressing me
I'm trying to make a living but they just want to sentence me
All in god's hands I'll be where I'm meant to be
But no man's hands will put me in a cemetery
It's funny how they talk like we ain't on smoke
They should know by now that we ain't no joke
The pigs keep an eye from the sky in drones
Noah's ark would have sunk the way we flooded the road
Early morning raids yeah that's why they love seeing us
Kim K will get cut the way they love keeping up
Try test the waters until you go deep enough
Old mates lucky that the worms ain't eight enough
I've been a hooligan ever since a young youth
More numbers than who like work nothing new
They know it's all facts when I stepped in the booth
They had to be victims to find out the truth
Good on our own we don't need reinforcements
Try use my name for a bit of endorsements
We turn gangbangers into informants
In black and white weak dog poor performance
100k a show then I spend it with my bros
Put some away so I can splash it on homes
Go check my numbers I did it on my own
Hate it all love it I was wrapped up Capone
