

Ruthless

Hooligan Hefs

You got the rhythm and I got the blues
Your love is so ruthless, baby (baby)
You give me something, I never wanna lose
Your love is so ruthless, baby (baby)
Your love, your love, your love is ruthless
Your love, your love, your love is ruthless
Your love, your love, your love is ruthless
Your love, your love, your love is ruthless

My heart's on you but Imma head to the street
I can't squash beef until the score looks neat
You want me to change I'm in love with the game
I'm trying to stay flow but I'm in too deep
A lot of enemies but I don't lose sleep
All these girls that I leave on seen
If I don't get bail then it's back to jail
I know they'll pull that plug and leave
So I'm keeping my distance I'm coming different
Not about the money then I don't wanna listen
And still no love for my opposition
I've had too much and it blurs my vision
You want me to listen my head is hot
You been through a lot? You are definitely don't Through the struggle all the way to the top
Maybe one day yeah I'll shut shot

You got the rhythm and I got the blues
Your love is so ruthless baby (baby)
You give me something, I never wanna lose
Your love is so ruthless, baby (baby)
Your love, your love, your love is ruthless
Your love, your love, your love is ruthless
Your love, your love, your love is ruthless
Your love, your love, your love is ruthless

I've got too much pride to let anything slide
It's how I grew up trying to earn my stripes
I should kick back cause I'm next in line
Still let it kick back when it's time to ride
My brother done the wack and it's soon home time
All my life I've been around crime
Do I regret it? Not for a second
It's too late for heaven I'm ready to fly
So I gotta keep moving guns still shooting
Girls can't stay they still get the booty
Still put a RIP to my brothers still looting
Even on a bad day they trust we're grooving
So pour me a drink let me make a toast
For all them days that we gave them smoke
All those boys we stood ten toes
And nothing's changed still letting them know

Why do you do these things to me yeah
Why do you make me feel so unhappy
Why do you do these things to me yeah
Why must you make me feel so uneasy

You got the rhythm and I got the blues
Your love is so ruthless baby (baby)
You give me something, I never wanna lose
Your love is so ruthless baby (baby)
Your love, your love, your love is ruthless
Your love, your love, your love is ruthless
Your love, your love, your love is ruthless
Your love, your love, your love is ruthless
