

(Astrovision)
(Every time we step, it's correct, yes)
(Aye Colcci that's what I'm here for)

Every time we step, it's correct yes
Turning up the lights my diamonds VVS
Bitches wanna
But they can't be me yet
Gun shot (Yah yah yah)

See it's not how ya start
It's how you finish
And I'm up in the store
It's got no limit
Every villy app war
The windows tinted
First they hate
Then they copy
They wanna mimic
One of one not one and done
It's been a minute count em' funds
We come from crumbs
Yeah we stay winning
Who said Hefs don't bang his gun
Go on a bring it like somebody loves their phone
We gonna ring it (Yah yah yah, yah)

Every time we step, it's correct yes
Turning up the lights my diamonds VVS
Bitches wanna
But they can't be me yet
Gunshots (Yah yah yah)

Still turning heads like franchise boys don't talk to much
We just go make noise
If he can't be touched like void till the stepping step we got deployed
FPO watch how we move with it
I grind for the freedom that come with it
Plays for through
Okay we pivot we got time to hate em
Run it up digits
I'm running up digits I'm running up bitches
They already know what we on
She says the list blow bubble kisses
While I'm pulling a fob
Still selling out tickets ain't doing exhibits
Your boys still going strong
I don't see the bishop but I'm religious with him I can't go wrong
And they wanna fuck cause I'm that dude
Sloppy top more stop than lube
If you ask me then I got nothing to lose
If you ask me now then I got nothing to prove
True
Hailey tried ruling my grove
Ok bring out the shoes
Shake up the room

Every time we step, It's correct yes
Turning up the lights my diamonds VVS
Bitches wanna
But they can't be me yet
Gunshots (Yah yah yah)
Every time we step, It's correct yes
Turning up the lights my diamonds VVS
Bitches wanna
But they can't be me yet
Gunshots (Yah yah yah)
