

Another Stupid Bar Ode

Hope D

So I'll have another drink
'Cause I can't do this sober
And they say to be myself
But that would never win you over

If I see you leave with another guy
My heart would grow much colder
And I hate the fact that I
Could never be able to hold ya

'Cause I want you
And I can't believe you
Could ever want me
Or ever say hey 'I need you'

Because I want you
And its just so cold
So I guess that tonight I'll be singing along
To another stupid bar ode

So I'll skull this another drink
How many will it take
And I try to make you laugh
But this ice just won't break

And if I see you leave with another guy
My heart would match the ice
But come on, look at me
Like I dressed up pretty nice

And even though this night is dark
Your eyes light could light up space
And whenever I see them
I just feel so out of place

And that's because they twinkle bright
Just like your pretty soul
And now you have two hearts
'Cause you have mine of which you stole

'Cause I want you
And I can't believe you
Could ever want me
Or ever say hey 'I need you'

Because I want you
And its just so cold
So I guess that tonight I'll be singing along
To another stupid bar ode

And so I'll sip my final drink
And I cannot pretend
Like I'm still going again
See my night is at its end

Because I saw you leave with another guy
Into the starry night

But I don't even care
Like I just hope he treats you right

And my wallet is now empty
And my body's on the ground
My phone is out of battery
My head is spinning round

I need to call a cab
And hit up maccas on the ride
My night was pretty bad
But I'll go out tomorrow night

Yeah I thought I needed you
I thought I hated those other guys
But now I'm happy
With my burger and my fries

So I'll go home
And wait for Netflix to load
Yeah tonight was pretty bad
But I'm sure tomorrow night I will be singing
To Another stupid bar ode

Yes I'm sure I will be singing
Yes I'm sure I will be
Singing along

To another stupid bar ode
