

Cherries

Hope Tala

The cherries in your mouth spill stars
Scarlet venom to keep in jam jars
We all build worlds with joined up scars
But your constellation has stained my guitar
And the French in your mouth breaks ribs
Makes heads go light and hands lose their grip
Pulling teeth behind a bottom lip
To look for cherry stones and rotting apple pips

Sunlight eats your skin, look at the state we're in
Look at the state we're in, look at the state we're in
The glare gets in my eyes, please drink the tears I cry
Drink up the tears I cry, drink up the tears I cry

Don't leave me here alone
Drink up the tears I cry, drink up the tears I cry
But don't leave me here alone
Drink up the tears I cry, drink up the tears I cry

Mela Verde in my cup
Tell me what the fuck's for lunch?
Is it your pussy or dinner?
Both seem like the same to us
Dracula to your neck, I was tryna relieve stress
You look yummy in that dress, I expect nothing less
Chain keeping swinging in your mouth
Now the chain stained with some cherry lip gloss
Tequila your tears, so we move from state to state
Sipping on your sorrows as I fuck you by the lake
Look
Turn around and bust it back, one time
Give you this dick and you relax, two times
Waking up to clothes all over your apartment
Pearls on your neck, Sauvignon on the carpet
Road trips to Nice but we ain't going up to Greece
Baby, I'm the one you call Aminé in the sheets
A lot of text messages that I wanna delete
But to get over the state we in I just cop you Céline

Sunlight eats your skin, look at the state we're in
Look at the state we're in, look at the state we're in
The glare gets in my eyes, please drink the tears I cry
Drink up the tears I cry, drink up the tears I cry

But don't leave me here alone
Drink up the tears I cry, drink up the tears I cry
But don't leave me here alone
Drink up the tears I cry, drink up the tears I cry

Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah (Ooh)
