

Easy To Love Me

Hope Tala

I can see your heart beneath your ribcage, you should save it for me
Sunlight and lemon trees, and all the things we could see
I'm far too careful, I wish I was braver, braver than she
Wish I could be all you need, and that I could make you leave her
I can be your sacred Caesar, oh and you can grieve her baby
But it's easy to love me, it's easy to love me
Oh, it's easy to love me
Oh, it's easy to love me
Oh, it's, it's easy to love me
Oh

You love to make me suffer and sometimes I like it cause at least you
Pay attention during mind games, cause you don't like to lose
You would leave me in the darkness by myself, all cut up and bruised
Wish I could be all you need, and that I could make you leave her
I can be your sacred Caesar, oh and you can grieve her baby
But it's easy to love me, it's easy to love me
Oh, it's easy to love me
Oh, it's easy to love me
Oh, it's, it's easy to love me
Oh
