

Sunburn

Hope Tala

You, you make me feel so insecure
None of us choose what we adore
We're only human after all
I hope you don't think I'm a bore
I've never been this hard to please
Waiting for you to come see me
Pathetic don't you agree

Oh, sunburn
It hurts but we never learn
To keep our distance
Don't turn away from me
'Cause pain is sweet from you baby
Oh, sunburn
I'll kiss the shade and return
When you get kinder
Tears stream down damaged skin
And us mere mortals never win
Never win

Faint metal sunrise on your tongue
I'll always be under your thumb
Let me curl up between your lungs
So I can feel you breathing
Please don't say you're leaving
'Cause I don't feel like grieving
Never been this hard to please
Waiting for you to come see me

Sunburn
It hurts but we never learn
To keep our distance
Don't turn away from me
'Cause pain is sweet from you baby
Oh, sunburn
I'll kiss the shade and return
When you get kinder

Oh, sunburn
It hurts but we never learn
To keep our distance
Don't turn away from me
'Cause pain is sweet from you baby
Oh, sunburn
I'll kiss the shade and return
When you get kinder
Tears stream down damaged skin
And us mere mortals never win

Sunburn (Never win)
Sunburn
Sunburn
