

Ever the same and always will be

Hopes Die Last

When everyone's watching
and everything's flowing
I'm supposed to be the one that holds you
When everyone's bleeding
'cause everything's falling
You're the only one who feels so lonely

Wait, I can explain everything
I'm still the one who said things like these
But you know (but you know)
I'm not so ashamed

And when the angels cry
And we are struggling too
To find it's not that bad
To feel like killed inside by you
Let's face it the truth
Just stop to hide behind me
'Cause now it's too late
The time is up
No chance to apologize my friend
And I don't wanna see no smiles
I've got no ears for cries

When everyone's watching
and everything's flowing
I'm supposed to be the one that holds you
When everyone's bleeding
'cause everything's falling
You're the only one who feels so lonely

I'll be there
I hope you'll be close to me again
And I am strong enough to love it like you do
'Cause when I try to let it die it bites my back

and everything's flowing
I'm supposed to be the one that holds you
When everyone's bleeding
'cause everything's falling
You're the only one who feels so lonely

When everyone's watching
and everything's flowing
I'm supposed to be the one that holds you
When everyone's bleeding
You're the only one who feels so lonely

and everything's flowing
When everyone's bleeding
