

Johnny's Light Sucks

Hopes Die Last

It's all getting old
And wise men run away so easily
So lightly I can't believe it
So drown into the sea
You'll find me there
I will drain all your fears

Take it back
Take it back
I can't believe we didn't kill our {lies}

Be quiet ask yourself why and try
Try to reach those heights
Cause it's useless business to tear yourself apart
Especially if thins are going like this

What does remain?
Nothing's gonna be friendly
There's nothing after this wall
Nothing after this wall

We're doing nothing but trying to match our lives
And finally the moment arrives
But I'm so tired, so tired of this fight
But I'm so tired and this time I give up, give up
And this time I give up

What does remain?
Nothing's gonna be friendly
There's nothing after this wall
Nothing after this wall

What does remain? (what can I say?)
Nothing's gonna be friendly (for me)
There's nothing after this wall
Nothing after this wall

It's all getting slow
Everything's too slow
Cause I heard you say
"Hey don't be afraid"
