

Under This Red Sky

Hopes Die Last

How can I sleep?, they're trying to hurt me Stay there and don't pretend to cry because they're waiting for me to all, to all

Tell me how can I sleep?
They try to haunt me, haunt me
They can't take back what's mine

Cause they're waiting for me to come and I'll sing this song and there's nothing they can do but sit and die

All you can do is watching me when I stand still here and say I never meant to have nothing to do with this but it's the only way

I'm sorry but I'll leave your place so empty (so empty) and notice that you're not there (you're leaving me)

What you're looking for, these are the same old ???
But nothing's gonna happen, nothing's going to change
I said I'd bring disaster, imagine we'd ever change

What you're looking for, take your book and sleep on it Tomorrow you'll be better, I swear

And things you stole, you sold em tongue I'm on my own, sleeping in a bed of swords and still I could, sick in here among the wolves

See my point, do you see my point?
See my point, do you see my point?
