

April Left With Silence

Hopesfall

Silence, silence was the last word we spoke
It filled the air heavy with forever's
And the failing smells of yesterday
This wasn't my intention its now a haunting
The ghost of whispering thoughts
I've bled these nights dry with tears
So here's to sleepless cold and dreams of insecurity
And like before I'm left with silence and the sound of a heart breaking
Its pieces crumble to the floor
Promise falls quiet between stillness and silence
I hear your voice say, 'my child, I will pick up the pieces'
Promise falls quiet between stillness and silence