It Happens

Hopesfall

Bodies collide to the beat
The spilt wine takes us to new heights
She said, ?I was her captain?
Oh, out of town swinger for a night
We parade the conquest for the careless
I am motionless and coma ready for this
Watch the blood she makes it shine
Flows through the head
I remember the first time
A tall tale told heroically
She's got the best of what I'm waiting for
We feel the distance, the sleep be the call to action
The intervention on something
Out of this world, we don't live to last forever
I am motionless and coma ready for this
Watch the blood she makes it shine
Flows through the head
I remember the first time
A tall tale told heroically
She's got the best of what I'm waiting for
From here to the moon, she tries
To take me to the starbeams in her eyes
From here to the moon, she tries to tell me
That I'm good for patient eyes
Watch the blood she makes it shine
Flows through the head
I remember the first time
A tall tale told heroically
She's got the best of what I'm waiting for
We feel no second chance
There's just a primal need
To release and never let in
Anything but the skin
We feel no second chance
There's just a primal need
To release and never let in
Anything but the skin
Watch the blood she makes it shine
Flows through the head
I remember the first time
A tall tale told heroically
She's got the best of what I'm waiting for
Watch the blood she makes it shine
Flows through the head
I remember the first time
A tall tale told heroically
She's got the best of what I'm waiting for
