

Before The Dawn

Horrorshow

It's darkest before the dawn
So right now I'm tryna hold on
The calm before the storm
Is when you gotta learn to be strong

It's like I don't know where to start 'cause there's so much to say
Had this pain up in my heart when I woke up today
Tell myself this too shall pass, be calm, it's just a phase
But the breath inside my chest is getting tight, thinking that I just might suffocate
Walking underneath these city lights, all I see is strangers' faces
And I wonder what would it be like if I could just try trading places
Would the world look any clearer when I looked into the mirror?
Or are they the same as me? Just staring, hating their reflection (Question)
Vision is clouded, feeling alone in this room that's so crowded right?
Thinking as dark as the cloud that is hanging up over my head like the power lines
Feeling surrounded, no way around it, knowing that I got a mountain to climb
I wanna shout it, think I am going up out of my mind

It's darkest before the dawn
So right now I'm tryna hold on
The calm before the storm
Is when you gotta learn to be strong
'Cause no one's gotta take this weight for me
Hope someone's gonna say a prayer for me (Somebody say a prayer for me)

Why I'm getting this high? Why I'm feeling this low? Why I'm living this lie
? Why can't I let go?
I got nowhere to hide, I can't take it no more, am I losing my mind? What I'm doing this for?
I just don't know (I just don't know)
I just don't know (I just don't know)
Why I'm getting this high? Why I'm feeling this low? Why I'm living this lie
? Why can't I let go?
I got nowhere to hide, I can't take it no more, am I losing my mind? What I'm doing this for?
I just don't know (I just don't know)
I just don't know (I just don't know)

Man, I swear this life will eat you up, I swear this life will wear ya down
We all got pain up in our hearts, all got things we're scared about
See we were taught to hold it in, gotta find a way to let it out
Roll another joint and light it up, write another page and tear it out
Now all those voices in your head, making noise and getting loud
That'll make you feel like giving up, make you feel like checking out
Got me feeling like a missing person, like no one knows my whereabouts
I should know that people care about me, they're the same ones I care about
But right now my mind is playing tricks and telling lies, scheming, tryna take control of me
If I lose then I'ma pay the price, got me scared to even go to sleep
Tonight if I should die before I wake, dunno how much more that I can take Praying I can just hold on until the light of morning breaks

It's darkest before the dawn
So right now I'm tryna hold on
The calm before the storm

Is when you gotta learn to be strong
'Cause no one's gotta take this weight for me
Hope someone's gonna say a prayer for me (Somebody say a prayer for me)
