

Never Say Never

Horrorshow

Sun, moon and stars
Struck through the heart, now I
Dunno who to trust, who to ask, and ah
Listen, this ain't some coup de grâce
And I hope it isn't rude to ask, but...
Girl I wish you wouldn't touch me there
It's a reminder that I ain't over my quest
To get up inside of your underwear
And I ain't know that I'd find you here, yeah I mighta guessed
But I ain't expect you
So I ain't come prepared
And yeah you caught me unawares
Still I'm hoping that you come as you are, pull up a chair
Till we throwing back a couple of laughs, couple of stares
Now we, tryna disguise it but we both know something's there
Chat for five minutes longer, vibe getting stronger, right?
Try keep it on the sly but it's on the rise
Lines blurring that define certain wrong or right
Tryna put up a fight but it's on my mind
See the problem is, we never came saw and conquered it
And now instead we just stay holding onto it
So captivating, no wonder I'm feeling captured
Caesar and Cleopatra, let me proceed to get at ya
Naturally, perfume and cologne setting the tone
I mean, you know how it be when we get in the zone
Over my head, so I'm heading home
Alcohol and pheromones
I just had to let you know, that

It's a good thing that we're never alone, never alone yeah
'Cause I don't really think that we could keep it together, keep it together
And I can see the things that are setting in stone, setting in stone yeah
Still a voice in my head saying never say never, never say never
But darling, when it all breaks down you will find
I ain't gonna be leaving here with you tonight
We shouldn't be left unsupervised
Maybe we'll just keep this between you and I
But boy don't act like I can't read between the lines
See it in your eyes, I ain't gotta read your mind
I know you know we both wanna give in to desire
But I won't let ya

Never say never, never say never, never say, never say, never, never say never er
Never say never, never say never, never say, never say, never, never say never er, uh

Girl I wish you wouldn't dress like that
It makes me wonder if you've found another brother
Who can kiss your neck like that I mean I know you're an independent sister
But does your mister know you be sending me texts like that?
Then again, who am I to talk?
'Cause when I get the message I'ma text right back
Falling victim to the laws of attraction
Can't get no satisfaction knowing this can never happen, singing

It's a good thing that we're never alone, never alone yeah
'Cause I don't really think that we could keep it together, keep it together
And I can see the things that are setting in stone, setting in stone yeah
Still a voice in my head saying never say never, never say never
But darling, when it all breaks down you will find
I ain't gonna be leaving here with you tonight
We shouldn't be left unsupervised
Maybe we'll just keep this between you and I
But boy don't act like I can't read between the lines
See it in your eyes, I ain't gotta read your mind
I know you know we both wanna give in to desire
But I won't let ya
