

Our Time

Horrorshow

Two's company, three's a crowd
Unless it's you, me and the clouds
Two's company, three's a crowd
Unless it's you, me and the clouds
Two's company, three's a crowd
Unless it's you, me and the clouds
Two's company, three's a crowd
Unless it's you, me and the clouds

Hey little lady, what you wanna do today?
(Um) Well, I was hoping that's what you would say
She said she feeling adventurous, she wanna attempt
A ménage à trois avec moi and Mary Jane
The three of us could sit up in my room and ruminate
I love the way that you communicate
Or we can make like Celsius
Take one, two-then illuminate
Or maybe we should choose to make the most
Of this beautiful day, take a stroll in the park
Till we find us a spot, nice view of the bay
Then I'll call an Uber to take us home
And when we get there, we can get blown
We can drift off, we can just let go
We can move at very own tempo
So what you say, baby? Let's go

Long as I'm, by your side
It's all right
Laughing in the twilight as the hours float on by
So just let your hand, reach for mine
It's all right
There's no need to rush so baby, let's just take our time

This goes out to the stoner girls, blowing kisses
She got the stash in her handbag, handy with the scissors
Know her way around a pack of Rizlas
Eating munchies watching Fuck, That's Delicious, see
Two's company, three's a crowd
But I wrote this one for... (wrote this one for you)
So you could have something to smoke a blunt to
Maybe I'll roll me one too
And when we come to
We'll be looking in the fridge for the answers
Hungry enough to eat the deer and the antlers
Laughing at your witty banter
Then we retire and try out a couple tantras
And if I could speak candidly
This here's just a fantasy
Nothing shady, but if you wanna understand the tree
Then float the idea yo, let's plant the seed
Won't you dance with me?

Long as I'm, by your side
It's all right
Laughing in the twilight as the hours float on by
So just let your hand, reach for mine
It's all right

There's no need to rush so baby, let's just take our time
Long as I'm, by your side
It's all right
Laughing in the twilight as the hours float on by
So just let your hand, reach for mine
It's all right
There's no need to rush so baby, let's just take our time

Two's company, three's a crowd
Unless it's you, me and the clouds
Two's company, three's a crowd
Unless it's you, me and the clouds
Two's company, three's a crowd
Unless it's you, me and the clouds
Two's company, three's a crowd
Unless it's you, me and the clouds
