

Yours & Mine

Horrorshow

In between the lines of your blank face
Read the signs, I can see you had a bad day
Something's on your mind but you won't say
Hard knock life, Annie are you okay?
Cos whatever it is, you can tell me
Cos we in this together, no Ben Lee
So you don't have to keep it to yourself
I mean, sometimes we all need a little help
Cos I'm yours and your mine
And you're all on my mind
Though the tide may be rising
I'm sure we'll be fine
If we fighting a war
Let our forces combine
Cos I'm standing beside ya
I'll fall into line
To back you up, cos I got your back
Straight from the horse's mouth, I can promise that
I can see you're out of sorts, and the only way of sorting it out
Is if you and I are talking it out

When we're all worn down
Like the soles of our shoes
Got ya soul feeling weary
Got ya singing the blues
When it all falls down
And we don't know what to do
Well let me tell you just what I'll say to you

You know it's been a while, babe
Since I seen you smile babe
That's how I know that's something's wrong
So lay it on the line, babe
Say what's on your mind, babe
I wanna know what's going on

See if you got a problem, then I got a problem too
So let's sit down, work out what we're gonna do
Take a step back, look at the bigger picture
I'll be right there, staring at the image with ya
So let's chew the fat, throw me a bone
If only you would open up and show me your dome
I wrote this lil poem cos I'm hoping you know
That you never have to go it alone, no you don't
Cos you're mine and I'm yours
So in spite of it all
I'll be climbing ya walls
Going right to the source
If we slip or we stumble it's
Par for the course
Cos the bigger the heights yeah the higher the fall, yeah
So just remember that mi casa et su
So me and you, we'll be seeing this through
Now let me show to your room with a view
Pull up a chair, let me share with this with you

When we're all worn down, like the soles of our shoes

If it's a storm in a teacup, well let's make it for two
When it all boils down
We'll both be drinking the brew
Well let me tell you just what I'll say to you

You know it's been a while, babe
Since I seen you smile, babe
That's how I know that's something's wrong
So lay it on the line, babe
Say what's on your mind, babe
I wanna know what's going on
You know it's been a while, babe
Since I seen ya smile, babe
That's how I know that's something's wrong
So say what's on your mind, babe
Lay it on the line, babe
You know what's mine is yours and of course
What's yours is mine
