

All I've Got

Horse Head

Reach for something else but still ask nothing in return
Do I wanna go back where I came from
No I don't

But your silence speaks a lot I'll still give this all I've got
But I don't wanna wait here for too long
No I don't

You're always reaching for the ones you cannot grasp
You said Chris you gotta stop living in the past

I don't wanna live at all
And sometimes it's all they are
And forever is not something you'll ever find

So you reach for someone else and still get nothing in return
Do you wanna go back where you came from
No you don't
But your silence speaks a lot I'll still give this all I've got
You don't want to wait here for too long
No you don't
