

Echo Park

Horse Head

I wonder when you get to know me
You'll hate me in the end
I'm the reigning champion
Of losing all my friends
I swear I thought I saw you
Down at Echo Park
I was probably seeing things
Apparitions in the dark
I just moved to Silver Lake
From the place we used to stay
You used to say you loved me then
But love just turns hate

Some people never get to know you
Seems like they never will
It's so easy for the one you love
To push you down the hill
There's something in the water
Makes it poisonous to drink
I was drunker than I ever was
I didn't wanna have to think
Sometimes I think I'm going crazy
Or I might have lost the plot
We were caught under the current there
And you just brushed it off
