

Have You

Horse Head

Your soft and scary skin
Will it haunt me forever
Like a ghost
Like a star that died a thousand years ago
You're sleeping in my bed
I'm a wait though, again
I'm gotta get this out of my head

If they want you, can they buy you?
1, 2, 3, 4
If they want to, can they have you?
If they want you can they have you?

My walls are caving in
Will you still want me, after I've been through
After what I've done a thousand times before I met you
Don't make me regret you and wish I never hit you hit up, in the first place
If they listen do they know you (The way I do)

If they want to, can they have you?
If they want you can they have you?

This court has reached it's end
I'll be your friend, if you'll be my lover
Just don't count on me, I'm not a number
I won't feel your skin all summer
While you sit at home and wonder

If they want you, can they buy you?
If they want to, can they have you?
If they want to, can they have you?
If they want you can they have you?
