You've got 2 faces, but you're not sure which to wear
For someone so self involved you still find it so hard to care
And I do too
You've got 2 hands made for touching
So I find it strange that you feel nothing
But you're suffering
And I am too

There is a necklace
This is a bracelet
Don't you feel jealous
Here's my replacement
My replacement, my replacement

You've got this place right down the street
That's the perfect place to meet me
And I'll wait for you outside and I'll follow you
If you ever feel like disappearing behind the curtain
Hung from the ceiling
Yeah I do too

There is a necklace
This is a bracelet
Don't you feel jealous
Here's my replacement
