

Spiderwebs.

Horse Head

Sometimes it feels like I'm walking through spiderwebs
Some days I can't even get out of bed
Is it all in my head? Is it all in my head? Just forget what I said

I guess that I'll stay stuck here instead
Sometimes it feels like I'm walking through spiderwebs
Some days I can't even get out of bed
Is it all in my head? Is it all in my head? Just forget what I said

I guess that I'll stay stuck here instead
(I guess that I'll stay stuck here instead)
I guess that I'll stay stuck here instead
I guess that I'll stay stuck here instead)

Run me over my head
I'd be better off dead
Can't forget what you said
Wanna fill my brain with lead
Lost in my thoughts and my dreams
Won't leave the house, not this week
Need to do the most but I do the least
'Cause I'm heavy hearted and can't hold it, I'm too weak
I've lost my sensibilities
Living this life, you know it's killing me
Stuck in this rut, can't escape
Ask how I've been, I still say great

Sometimes it feels like I'm walking through spiderwebs
Some days I can't even get out of bed
Is it all in my head? Is it all in my head? Just forget what I said

I guess that I'll stay stuck here instead
(I guess that I'll stay stuck here instead)

Just forget what I said, you're asleep in my bed
And I've been seeing red
And you only see what you wanna see
What do you see when you look at me?
I'm an empty shell of what I used to be
(I guess that I'll stay stuck here instead)

Sometimes it feels like I'm walking through spiderwebs
Some days I can't even get out of bed
Is it all in my head? Is it all in my head? Just forget what I said
I guess that I'll stay stuck here instead
