Teeth

Horse Head

Yeah, yeah
You think you know me
GothBoiClique

She tell me not to leave, and I won't go
Are you lying through your teeth? I just wanna know
And if you wanna go, then I wanna go too
'Cause you know that we could go there and I wanna take you
I really wanna make you mine
For tonight, I'll take my time

And I know it's not ideal
I just need something that I can feel
Something tangible
Something that feels sort of like love

Just tell me not to leave, and I won't go
Are you lying through your teeth? I just wanna know
And if you wanna go, then I wanna go too
'Cause you know that we could go there and I wanna take you
I really wanna make you mine
For tonight, I'll take my time

And your presence will be felt here
I'll remember you
Will you remember me?
Last December did you even fucking know me?
But you think that you control me?
I guess you do...

Just tell me not to leave, and I won't go
Are you lying through your teeth? I just wanna know
And if you wanna go, then I wanna go too
'Cause you know that we could go there and I wanna take you
I really wanna make you mine
For tonight, I'll take my time

And God took his time on you
So I will do my best to bless you and never break you
No I'll never break you

Just tell me not to leave, and I won't go
Are you lying through your teeth? I just wanna know
And if you wanna go, then I wanna go too
'Cause you know that we could go there and I wanna take you
I really wanna make you mine
For tonight, I'll take my time

For tonight, I'll take my time
