

Fallen Superstar

Hoshi

You're just a fallen superstar
The way you fall into my arms

In my dreams, I made a promise (Promise, promise)
That I would find somebody to fix everything
And I'm usually heartless (Heartless, hearless)
But then I found somebody as broken as me

And I know that I'm bleeding
And I see how you need me
But you're too far to reach me

You're just a fallen superstar
The way you fall into my arms
You're just a fallen superstar
The way you fall into my arms

11:11, I just made a wish
If with you is heaven, I just made the list

And I know that I'm bleeding
And I see how you need me
But you're too far to reach me

You're just a fallen superstar
The way you fall into my arms
You're just a fallen superstar
The way you fall into my arms

You're just a fallen superstar

You're just a fallen superstar
The way you fall into my arms
You're just a fallen superstar
The way you fall into my arms
