Hot Chip

I thought I was ready, but then my face turned into a wall
I thought I'd forget it, I guess my heart wasn't so small
How do you remember something no one can teach you
And you've yet to learn - it's what we're made of
And I don't want you to turn... away before you love
I don't want you to turn...
away before you love

I thought I was healthy, but then I looked into the dark
Pack in coffin the feeling like I was lost
I guess that I will always be something I'm not meant to be
As long as I reach you there how far away will you be free
How far away will you be free

Oh baby I'm restless, coughing up this shit
Oh baby we're reckless, lying within all of it
Oh baby I'm restless, thinking when my voice will quit
Oh baby we're reckless, waiting around for the world to die
With us just swimming in it
With us just swimming in all of this
With us just swimming in it
With us just swimming in all of this

Oh baby I'm restless
Oh baby we're reckless
Oh baby I'm restless
Oh baby we're reckless

Baby we're reckless
Baby we're reckless
Baby we're reckless
Baby we're reckless

Can't you see I have nothing left in me that needs to breathe
But we all need it more now than we've ever been

Baby I'm restless
Baby we're reckless
Baby I'm restless
Baby we're reckless
Baby I'm restless
Baby we're reckless

I'd rather be tired of take the cold and this
When we see there's nothing left to freeze you or me
