

Worlds Within Worlds

Hot Chip

Jim says all we really want
Is to return to the cold, cold ground
Lisa says she knows some things
That she just cannot abide
Freddie said that nothing really mattered
To him at all
And James said that it keeps coming
Until the day when it stops

I woke up in the darkness
After dreaming I had killed a man
The waves keep coming
Of worlds within the worlds

Lou says it's all a matter
Of soul and fire, infatuation and true desire

The waves keep coming
Of worlds within the worlds
Of worlds within the worlds

It wasn't right for you
It was a strange story
It wasn't right for you
There was a strange story
Dream yourself back into the world

It wasn't right for you
It was a strange story
It wasn't right for you
There was a strange story
Dream yourself back into the world

It wasn't right for you
I'm staying right under
It wasn't right for you
I wasn't right in the soil
Dream yourself back into the world
