

Changing World

Hot Chocolate

Through chocolate-colored eyes I see
A world that never cared for me
Changing, changing
For eyes that once stared at me
Now begin to [?]
Making me feel at home
In a world where I've always felt alone

I will be loved
I will be loved
I will be loved
I will be loved

Put away those foolish suspicions
Throw away those inhibitions
Nothing can stop these changes
For, like my father before me
So I'd be proud to see
My children working hand in hand
In a world where nothing matters
But [?]

I will be loved
I will be loved
I will be loved
I will be loved

Love
Love
Love
Love
Loved

I will be loved
I will be loved
I will be loved
I will be loved

Through chocolate-colored eyes I see
A world that never cared for me
Changing, changing
For eyes that once stared at me
Now begin to smile with me
Making me feel at home
In a world where I've always felt alone

I will be loved
I will be loved
I will be loved
I will be loved
I will be loved
I will be loved
I will be loved
I will be loved
