

Emotion Explosion

Hot Chocolate

There's gonna be an emotion explosion
All over this place
A face to face competition
That boy don't step at my face, oh

Amerine I'm telling you
That boy is dancing too close to you
That boy is making me mad
I think I'm gonna get bad

Another boy is looking for a fight
A boy is holding you too tight
That boy is sure enough
But there's something on his mind

He's not dancing
He's not dancing...
He's not dancing
The boy is romancing with my girl

There's gonna be an emotion explosion
All over this place
A face to face competition
That boy don't step at my face, oh

Could there, there is a stranger in town
And it just don't know the store
Amerine make sure
He knows that you're my girl

The disco music is playing hot
The boy is dancing too slow for dead
The boy is sure enough
But loving on his mind

He's not dancing
He's not dancing...
He's not dancing
The boy is romancing with my girl

There's gonna be an emotion explosion
All over this place
A face to face competition
That boy don't step at my face, step at my face

Gonna be an emotion explosion all over this place
A face to face competition
That boy don't step at my face

Emotion explosion all over this place
Face to face competition
That boy don't step at my face, oh, oh, step at my face, oh, oh
