

The Void

Hot Flash Heat Wave

Hard times will always drag you down
I walk through the ruins of this town
I look up but all I see is the ground
Cry out but no one hears a sound

Tonight's the night
To let go
And say hello
To the end

Bright lights flashing in your eyes
Under the technicolor sky
Come on, line right up and sit down for the show
There's only fear in what you don't know

Now it's time
To let go
And say hello
To the end
Throw it all
Into the void
And say hello
To the end

(Hello)

(Welcome to the void)

You are already there
You are already gone
You are already dead
