

Have a Good Sleep

Hot Hot Heat

Wake up,
You do have a way with words, at least with me, unfortunately.
Please tell me this means what I think it does,
But secretly, so he won't see.
My dear, I fear that your scandal has corrupted many,
Disrupted many, anyway.
Have a good sleep,
Have a good sleep,
Have a good sleep on your own.
Have a good sleep all alone.
Tape up your fingers they're bleeding now, so knock less hard.
Wait patiently.
Useless they're useless excuses.
So unnecessary, but not with me.
Hold on, holding on,
Holding on, though I don't why.
Hold on, holding on,
Holding on to your lullabye.
My love is gone, but not for long,
My love is gone, but not for long.
Have a good sleep
Have a good sleep
Have a good sleep on your own.
Have a good sleep all alone.
