

The King And Queen Of Gasoline

Hot Milk

Told we're nothing and we're no good
An alien since childhood
Baptised in a river of blood
So we set fire to the neighbourhood

Irony that you've lost all of your damn morality
As you're preaching from a broken home
Vanity makes you blind because you're always mad at me
Yeah, I'm not the child that you planned for

Vacant hearts are used to missing all of their parts
A pyromaniac that's hurting hard, so I'll burn it down
It's easier to rage than love (when all you do is run)

The king and queen of gasoline
We sabotage our hopes and dreams
We'll take a match to everything
If I dare to make a home on this throne
Then I'll be dying alone

Catastrophe, now I'm looking like my own worst enemy
Brittle bones that will not hold their own
Like a snake's tail in its mouth
You contradict and destroy yourself, no hope

The king and queen of gasoline
We sabotage our hopes and dreams
We'll take a match to everything
If I dare to make a home on this throne
Then I'll be dying alone

Told we're nothing and we're no good
An alien since childhood
Baptised in a river of blood
So we set fire to the neighbourhood

The king and queen of gasoline
We sabotage our hopes and dreams
We'll take a match to everything
If I dare to make a home on this throne
Then I'll be dying alone

Told we're nothing and we're no good
An alien since childhood
Baptised in a river of blood
If I dare to make a home on this throne
Then I'll be dying alone