

Smahccked My Head Awf

Hot Mulligan

Sucking blood out of a canker sore
What's on TV?
Televangelist exploits the poor
He's sweating beads
Let me help you sit down
Haven't seen you in a long time
Do you mind if we watch something else?
Where's the remote?
Then you gave me your phone

It's okay, it's okay

Have you fed the birds, no?
Don't worry, I've got it
And no, my brothers not home
You must have forgotten
He died when I was fifteen
Hasn't been here for a long time
Let's talk about something else
Why don't we move outside?

I can see your age
It's in your face
Every wrinkle to a year I can't replace
Won't you tell me how you've been
These past few days
But you just say the same things

It's okay
Small mistakes
Should've known that you can't bother me
It's okay, it's okay

Watch your house while sitting in my car
Wait and think
How my father said it's spread too far

Soon we'll see
What this illness can do
Probably won't look like you

Didn't think that I would see your memories fade
How your eyes don't light up when you see my face
Would you remember if I never left?
I should've stayed
Would you remember if I never left?
I should've stayed

Oh, I've written all these songs, all meant for you
But I'll turn into a stranger before too soon
Would you remember if I never left?
I should've stayed
Would you remember if I never left?
I should've stayed

All the years together that I missed
All the notes that I've always kept

Would you remember if I never left?

It's okay, small mistakes
Should've known that you can't bother me
It's okay, it's okay

Remember how in church you would ask me to sing
The garden where we picked Johnny jump-ups in spring
It's okay
