

Cool for One Night

Hot Rod Circuit

and i've made goals that i've never meant to break them.
and (they) go beyond the outer depths.
and stranger things have happened since you've been here.
it's been so long since i've seen your face, or even been to th is place.
this town was cool for one night.
early july.
childhood friends have all grown up.
and i don't think i could ever remember a time...
that this place felt quite like home.
and i've lived my life with no regrets... regardless of circumstance or chance. i'd have to take.
and stranger things have happened ince you've been here.
it's been long since i've seen your face, or even been to this place.
this town was cool for one night. early july.
