

Unfaithful

Hot Rod Circuit

Are you safe and warm inside
Is your conscience clear tonight
Are you deceitful, unfaithful
Here's your chance to make this right
No matter how you feel inside
Are you deceitful
Unfaithful of lies

You're not telling me
Something I know
You're haunted by
The consequence that follows
No one wants to be alone

When you take a look inside
And swallow all your pride
Are you forgetful, regretful
I can see it in your eyes
The darkness holds you tight
You are deceitful
Unfaithful of lies

You cause this grief
You can't believe
That you're wrong
Created this doubt
You sold me out
Now it's on
