

Head First

Hotboii

So just listen

I put my life in a verse, so just listen (So just listen)
I jumped in head first, I ain't panic (I ain't panic)
Sometimes when I'm geeked, I pop a Perky when I'm landing (Got to landing)
They see all these racks, ain't put in work, but wanna spend it (Wanna spend
Know a boss could take a loss, but I be hating to lose (Hating to lose)
I fall back, man, I got ten K in the booth (K in the booth)
Do this for my lil son, I'm gon' make it for you (Oh, I'm gon' make)
Like a chef, to the table, I be bringing the food

Care how far where you are, I'm gon' make it to you
Told my mom dye her hair, 'cause no more greys coming through
Never thought I'd re-route and that's crazy to you
'Cause it was crazy to me how I was crazy for you
Now I'm onto better things, pop shit, I'm sizzling (Yah)
Young nigga came from nothing
Now I own everything (Everything)
(And I'm tryna shop, what you got?)
Everything, everything
(Still be asking God why)
He let it rain everyday

I put my life in a verse, so just listen (So just listen)
I jumped in head first, I ain't panic (I ain't panic)
Sometimes when I'm geeked, I pop a Perky when I'm landing (Got to landing)

Momma, I'm sorry, know you 'on't like I keep that flair with' me (Keep that flair)
Just bare with me, I get caught lacking, ain't no sparing me
Ho can't get no wedding ring ain't no "Forever we"
4 trey, I still be in the hills like it's Beverly
You see, I'm tryna shine, but look, it's cloudy, 'cause the rain here
Got me writing letters to the rain I'm like "Rain dear" I meant "Dear rain"
You know what I'm saying? It's the same shit
I go away to make the pain clear
Done took off in a spaceship

I put my life in a verse, so just listen (So just listen)
I jumped in head first, I ain't panic (I ain't panic)
