

One In A Million

Hotboii

I'm so hot they wanna fan me, fan me
Remember you used to be down me
I made this Glock pop just like a soda
Hennessy pop like a banshee
I want no love
None of these hoes understand me
I need a girl just like my mammy
I grew up with tough
I took a look in the mirror
Dropped in the whip panoramic
Solid be down I don't know too many
I love them switches I order em in I'mma tell you right now bitch I'm one in a million
Ralph Lauren my car got a horse in the engine
Wanted mama to see me all over the TV
But not on the news, I wanted it different
How you caused me to see it I gotta get even How the fuck I'mma lose when I'm posed to be winning

February I got locked up
September 7th I got out
Thats 19 months I spent
Wishing I was locked out
Too many days in lockdown
I could say ay shit when I was down
RIP Wolph I know he rocked out
And live through me kei heart of a lion
Lemme tell you this story
How a nigga home team my own team cuttin'
You would think it was a game of spades
But if I win do you win how you play the game
For you I might lose give you anything
For you I might lose give you anything

If I keep protection no pussy can burn me
Play pussy you get fucked that's how it's worded
This Glock with a dick leave em bloody like virgins
Get cut like the doctor I swear I'm a surgeon
Show in your city you know that I'm purging show in you're city you know tha t I'm flexing
If you can get close to this bourbon
Show in your city FN on me when I be rappin
I bet I get in with that 30

I'm so hot they wanna fan me, fan me

Let you run your mouth I be running up bands
Ain't running from naan

I can't run you down I be running from 12
Ain't running from Jake's I'm gonna get down
VPN I put that shit on my cell
I do that so I won't be in no cell
I can go away out to Cali
Smoke me a p on the beach and never be there
My family tellin' me I never be there
Trying to catch these deals, I'm sorry
I don't see me changing cause I ain't famous
I ran with the same squad when I was not
I don't wanna be more than friends
I'm dangerous, don't put your heart in my hand
Cut me for nothing already knew you renigged
Cut me once can't cut me again
Can't fool me again
Fool me once can't fool me again
Can't fool me again
Fool me once can't fool me again
Can't fool me again
Can't fool me again
Can't fool me again
