

Eventually

Hotel Mira

Falling in love, she calls it slapstick
Only because she's out of practice
Say you're on your way (Say you're on your way)
And I bet you clean up good (Bet you clean up good)
Come up to me, face like a sunrise
I can't compete, dressed like a punchline
Say you're on your way
And I bet you clean up good
You said

It's you and me eventually
And you are not allowed to leave
My hotel room, now Dracula
You talked a lot, now back it up

What do I know? What do I know?
(The lies that you told me, the truth if you want it)
What do I know?

Typical me, tears smear my lipstick
He says with ease that it's not realistic
He's making me a mix (Making me a mix)
And it's gonna change my life (It's gonna change my life)
You said

It's you and me eventually
And you are not allowed to leave
My hotel room, now Dracula
You talked a lot, now back it up

What do I know? What do I know?
(The lies that you told me, the truth if you want it)
And what do I know?
(The lies that you told me, the truth if you want it)

The truth is I've been lying to myself
Hey, stupid, it's a battle cry for help
And what do I know? Yeah
All that I know
It's you and me eventually (Woo)
I think it's you and me eventually (Yeah)

I think it's you and me eventually
And you are not allowed to leave
My hotel room, now Dracula
You talked a lot, can't back it up

What do I know? What do I know?
(The lies that you told me, the truth if you want it)
What do I know?
(The lies that you told me, the truth if you want it)
(The lies that you told me, the truth if you want it)
The lies that you told me, the truth is I lost it
