

Vancouver Grizzly

Hotel Mira

Oh can you see the sun from behind the clouds?
I've seen you modern girls, you got it figured out
You know just what to wear you
Know just what to say to keep me by your side
And keep your boyfriend at bay (wait!)

I just really wanna be a grizzly bear with salmon in his paw
Blame it on the way I was raised or the place I was born

Oh Can you see the sky when you look up?
I know that you get high but do you get fucked up?
I'm on a vision quest I'm on another test
They say "chief you got a long way to go". No I don't

I just really wanna be a grizzly bear with salmon in his paw
Blame it on the way I was raised or the place I was born

Oh can you see the sun from behind the clouds?
I've seen you modern girls, you got it figured out
You know just what to wear you
Know just what to say to keep me by your side
And keep your boyfriend at bay (wait!)

I'll eat you alive 'cause I'm a Vancouver grizzly
I'll eat you alive 'cause I was born in the city
