

E Flat

HotWax

Spent two pence later now I'm sick of the sound
Song bird traitor can you sing it so loud
Salt shaken flavour poured into my mouth
Stop when I see my reflection in your doubt

I just wanna read a book book I
I just wanna read a book book I
I just wanna read a book book I
I just wanna read a book

Now I've tasted your taste and
You've put on a different face
Escape to the waters edge and
I'll smell out your nasty pledge
My baby it sees the truth and
Baby you got no good root
My dark room just turned so bright and
Our red room turned into night

I just wanna read a book book I
I just wanna read a book book I
I just wanna read a book book I
I just wanna read a book

Shave a wink of sleep then start to hear
The sad love song weep at my door
It doesn't happen anymore not if I ignore
So I'll shave that wink of sleep and I'll say
Let's sew your head for a while let's sew your head for a while

I just wanna read a book book I
I just wanna read a book book I
I just wanna read a book book I
I just wanna read a book book I

I just wanna read a book book I
I just wanna read a book book I
I just wanna read a book book I
I just wanna read a book
