

High Tea

HotWax

Invite me, kindly
'Coz if one is enough can't hide the other with the sun
Tonight she defied me
Put on a public smile eyes target like a laser gun

So I'm spitting out all of my doubt
Spitting out all of my doubt, I'm spitting
Spitting out all of my doubt
Spitting out all of my doubt, I'm spitting

We've seen our hours oh yeah we've seen our hours
So green so sour
'Coz if one is enough can't hide the other with the sun

So I'm spitting out all of my doubt
Spitting out all of my doubt, I'm spitting
Spitting out all of my doubt
Spitting out all of my doubt, I'm spitting

In my imagination the flame would go out
And in our conversation you'd always spit it out
Greedy lover runs hot and cold
Strange night foolish things that would keep a tight hold
At least it would give me inspiration that I could shout about
Take me to high tea and I will make you proud

So I'm spitting out all of my doubt
Spitting out all of my doubt, I'm spitting
Spitting out all of my doubt
If it's not golden you'll see, I'm spitting
So I'm spitting out all of my doubt
Spitting out all of my doubt, I'm spitting
And I'm spitting out all of my doubt
If it's not golden you'll see, I'm spitting
