Heading for the home of god
The scent of christian blood is upon thee
Seeking to ascend upon the throne again
With rage we're moving forward,
We don't spare a single human being, no one's left,
Descend upon the ones who don't submit to our master's will,
No one's left alive
Hail - Hail - The christian church burns in fire Hail - Hail - Dethrone the pope, now he's hanged and
defiled
Hail - Hail - Defy the cross, decimate this race Hail - Hail - The sun is crumbling, all the stars are pale
Hail - Hail - Hail - Hail
The sun is crumbling, all the stars are pale...
...and then He raises his hand,
This place becomes a barren land of pain
Unholy tyrant - No mercy, shed their blood Casting down the cosmos, every law's becoming tamed now Defloration - New monarch, spread your wings
We all Hail - Hail - The christian church burns in fire Hail - Hail - Dethrone the pope, now he's hanged and
defiled
Hail - Hail - Defy the cross, decimate this race Hail - Hail - The sun is crumbling, all the stars are
pale
With rage we're moving forward,
We don't spare a single human being, no one's left,
alive
Descend upon the ones who don't submit to our master's
No one's left alive

Pater, I feel my blood turn into fire

Grow in me, nourish me, I feel my soul turn into fire
