

Blight and Conquer

Hour of Penance

Desolated sceneries unfolding to the plebs
The smoke is merging with the dust
Craters are filled with remains of the feeblers
Only one choice - Accept submission

Blasting down the walls with the might of the hammers
Set them on fire for the night
All the sins will be cleansed from their descent
Guide their lords into submission

Profane arcane writings indoctrinate the vassals
Cursing wildly their legacy

Alchemy and seances breathing life into the dead ones
Armed to the teeth and sent to die
The sun and astral bodies are extinguished by the ritual
Casting their remains into perdition

Through the rotten soil crawl the vines and the roaches
Eating through the heart of this land
When the eclipse will be over
Only one choice - Accept submission

Drained - Feed those seals with the blight
Breaking the staves
There's no savior in sight
Bursting the veins that are feeding their souls

Drained - Feed those seals with the blight
Ripping the veil
Still no savior in sight
Thrusting the spear through the chest of the Sun

Bring in the slaves
Send out the knights
Silence the spark of the light

Bring in the slaves
Send out the knights
Silence the spark of the light
