

Frail as the Flesh of Christ

Hour of Penance

Desperate cries echo from the pits
Where the real trial will now test his life

Pray - As it all begins
Frail - As the flesh of Christ

Bring the dead god to me
Reveal the conspiracy
The rusted nail gets deep inside
The call of a devious life
Return the old world to us
The rusted nail gets deep inside

Serve the father of this whole race
Against the assailing force
Defending us with your life
See as the earth begins to turn
Into an endless land of thorns
For our king

Be the one stepping on the corpse of the enemies
It's the end for you
Be the one treading on the soil of victory
It's the end for you

We want to see the fall of all the sons of god
We want to see the fall of all the sons of god

This dark rite
Pray - As it all begins
Frail - As the flesh of Christ
