I think I like where I'm standing I think I hate it too 'Cause it's safe on the side of caution But baby, it's so far away from you And if I try my best, I still can't find a way to let it go And it's so much work pretending to move on I can't if I'll never know (Walk in the rain) In love and pain (On and on) 'Til we find a new beginning Hey, hey, this is dangerous I've buried all my dreams but the ones of us I think I never knew you when I knew you before And every time we meet It's like you're breaking my heart all over Give me peace, give me trust, give me something real Let me know when it's safe to begin to feel All the things I knew before, I need something to fight for Talk it out, all these hours, almost every day Still you fill my lungs (Still I walk in grace) Until I've unlearned everything, except to trust I can't if I'm too afraid of love and pain (Is that so wrong?) Tell me that I'm gaining something Hey, hey, this is dangerous I've buried all my dreams but the ones of us I think I never knew you when I knew you before And every time we meet It's like you're breaking my heart all over Hey, hey, this is dangerous I'm writing all the songs that I'll play for us I'm crossing off the reasons why I couldn't believe That peace of mind was something that I'd ever achieve Come on, come on Nothing to be lost or won Come on, come on I feel as if we've just begun I'm standing here alone Come on, come on Nothing ever seemed so clear Come on, come on And still I don't know how to feel I walk this road alone Come on, come on Listen to the sound of the rain

Hey, hey, this is dangerous

Can it take me home again?
Take me home again to your arms

Come on, come on

Waste the night away with us

Even if we never find a way back to love

The desperate and the faithful are the ones we can trust

Hey, hey, this is dangerous
I've buried all my dreams but the ones of us
I think I never knew you when I knew you before
And every time we meet
It's like you're breaking my heart all over

Come on, come on Nothing to be lost or won Even if we never find our way back to love Take me home again
