

Blood

House of Lords

There's been some bad, bad blood
And it's gonna get spilled tonight
We're gonna live forever
Beneath this pale moonlight

If wishes were dollars I wouldn't have a thing
'Cuz I got all I wanted from your thermal springs
There'll be no wasting 'cuz I love the juice that I'm tasting

You'll get a one way ticket to forever and it starts tonight
Tonight
You know you just can't kick it so don't bother putting a fight
Alright
It's midnight

You're gonna feel no pain
But the pleasure's too much to bear
You're gonna wonder what's leakin'
But you'll like it too much to care

And all that you wanted and all that you dreamed
Will fly like a rocket and rise like the cream
You'll face the abyss when you suffer my tenderness
And just one kiss

You'll get a one way ticket to forever and it starts tonight
Tonight
You know you just can't kick it so don't bother putting a fight
Alright
It's midnight

You'll get a one way ticket to forever and it starts tonight
Tonight
You know you just can't kick it so don't bother putting a fight
Alright
It's midnight

You'll get a one way ticket to forever and it starts tonight
Tonight
You know you just can't kick it so don't bother putting a fight
Alright
It's midnight
